

RESFEST

Digital Film Festival

PRESENTING SPONSOR
Panasonic ideas for life

MAJORITY SPONSORS
Canon gettyimages NIKE

SUPPORTING SPONSORS
bfi (mt) Wiredrive Apple

CONTRIBUTING PARTNERS
Protein OS COBRA Shooting People

MEDIA PARTNERS
THE GUARDIAN TIMES Sight & Sound DAZED

SPONSORS
PRIMO grafik TRACE blow up

SPONSORS
URBAN JUNKIES kulturellaah

27 September - 2 October
London
National Film Theatre

bfi NFT KEEP IT CURIOUS resfest | 2005

Pictured - Klonhertz "Three Girl Rhumba" (directed by Dougal Wilson)

You are invited to the first in a monthly series presenting brand new music videos, short films and motion graphics.

See innovative filmmaking on the big screen, hear from special guests and join us for a drink following the show.

Tues., Jan. 27, 8:00 p.m.

Egyptian Theatre
6712 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood
$10 on Ticketweb or at the door
www.res.com
Info: 310-826-1298 / editor@res.com

sponsors: Panasonic

Sponsored Lounges

RES Magazine:
The first magazine for digital creators

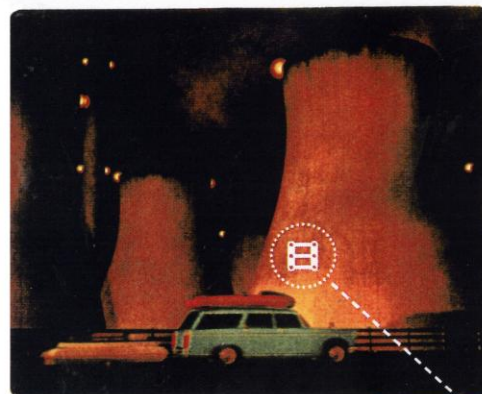

WIRED

Ahead of its time...

PLAY reviews

SEPTEMBER 2002 C U 2 MOR

Resfest 2002

This is the festival to hit for a preview of digital filmmaking's future. The wildly inventive shorts and music videos flaunt the talents of cinema's most promising up-and-comers. Entries for 2002 include a DJ Shadow video by Wong Kar-wai, a photo-driven documentary about one of Manhattan's grittiest watering holes (Terminal Bar), and a poignant animated tale of one father's quest to create the perfect family vacation (Home Road Movies). Resfest travels to 14 cities worldwide. Check www.resfest.com for a venue near you. — Clare Kleinedler